BOSTON, MARCH 19.

A Committee of the town are proceeding in a legal way to take the teſtimonies of great numbers reſpecting what preceded, as alſo what is relative to the late horrid maſſacre---plenty of evidence will prove the ſoldiery to have been wholly the aggreſſors, and that the inhabitants have been treated by them with an unexampled barbarity---a number of evidences are taken to prove a firing from the cuſtom-houſe at the time of the maſſacre, and a track is purſuing which it's thought will illucidate the intended aſſaſſination of Mr. Otis; the firing of the perjured Richardſon, after a meſſage received from thence by the vile Wilmot, by which young Snider was killed and others wounded: It will then clearly appear that there never was a more baſe and abandoned crew, than has been encouraged and employed by our revenue and cuſtom-houſe officers.

His H------r has been often ſeen going into the houſe of James Routineau, Eſq; ſince the late maſſacre, and the---honourable John Robinſon a commiſſioner always following or being with him; what has been the ſubject matter of his conſult with him and the reforming magiſtrate we know not; but it ſeems Robinſon has left behind all his proſecutions criminal and civil begun and deſigned againſt him, having very privately conveyed himſelf on board Captain Robſon, who ſailed on Friday morning for London.

How aſtoniſhing muſt it be to the ſenſible of our ſtation, that notwithſtanding all the charge and uneaſineſs occaſioned by the commiſſioners and their numerous train, aſſiſted by an army and fleet for eighteen months paſt, and their report to adminiſtration of a prejudicial contraband trade's being carried on in America, it is notorious that not one article has been ſeized on the ſeas or on ſhore in the leaſt interfering with the manufactures of Great-Britain.

We hear that the ſaid John Robinſon carries a number of teſtimonies taken ex parta along with him; in the procuring of which, he was aſſiſted by the reforming magiſtrate; and it is ſaid, in one of thoſe teſtimonies, a young fellow was charged as having thrown brickbats at the commiſſioners houſe, who was not ſent for when the other was examining; but he has ſince brought to a magiſtrate a perſon who was with him the whole of that evening, and can prove the falſity of that depoſition.

Laſt Wednesday night died Patrick Carr, an inhabitant of this town, of the wound he received in King-ſtreet on the bloody and execrable night of the 5th inſt.---He had juſt before left his home, and upon his coming into the ſtreet received the fatal ball in his hip which paſſed out at the oppoſite ſide; this is the fifth life that has been ſacrificed by the rage of the ſoldiery, but it is feared it will not be the laſt, as ſeveral others are dangerouſly languiſhing of their wounds. His remains were attended on Saturday laſt from Faneuil-Hall by a numerous and reſpectable train of mourners, to the ſame graye, in which thoſe who fell by the ſame hands of violence were interred the laſt week.

MARCH 26. Mention has been made of number being near the cuſtom-houſe on the evening of the late maſſacre: It is proper to obſerve that the commiſſioners were pleaſed to remove the cuſtom-houſe into King-ſtreet, where they might ſee and hear what paſſed or was ſaid on the merchants exchange; and to add to the military parade of that ſtreet, a centry box was placed before their houſe---On the ſaid evening the centinel heard a boy ſay ſomething of an officer's not paying his debts, he left his poſt and followed him into the middle of the ſtreet, and deſired to ſee his face, upon the boys ſhewing it the centinel gave him a blow with his muſket which ſtaggered him; this naturally collected a few people about the boy and near the cuſtom-houſe, which accounts for any ill-language that might have paſſed------ And when Captain Preſton's party fired, the beſt accounts ſay there were not above forty or fifty in the ſtreet againſt the cuſtom-houſe, and theſe moſtly boys, who did no other injury than throwing of ſnow-balls; yet it is ſaid ſome have been baſe enough to procure private teſtimonies for commiſſioner Robinſon, to deceive adminiſtration into the belief that there was a deſign upon the cuſtom-houſe.

Not only John Robinſon has left us abruptly, but we hear other of the commiſſioners have been ſecretly conveying away from their houſes their goods and effects---It is indeed notorious that they and the infamous Bernard, were the means of introducing thoſe troops into the town, that have moſt wantonly ſhed the blood of its inhabitants; and that dark circumſtances are turning up reſpecting the conduct of themſelves or their inferiors: But whatever their guilty fears may have ſuggeſted, this is certain, no kind of inſult has been offered any of their perſons, or the leaſt interruption given them in the execution of their office.

We hear from Cape-Ann, that on Friday night laſt, a number of people there, who knew that town had ſuſtained great damage by the miſdoings of one Jeſſe Saville an informer, and that he deſerved chaſtiſement therefor, went in a body to his houſe for that purpoſe, about ten o'clock, and finding him in bed, took him from thence, and walk'd him bareſoot about four miles to the harbour, then placed him in a cart they had provided for that purpoſe, and putting a lanthorn with a lighted candle in his hand, that every one might ſee him, they carted him through all their ſtreets, and ſtopping at every houſe they rouſed the inhabitants, and obliged him to declare and publiſh unto them that he was Jeſſe Saville the informer; and having gone round in this manner, they then beſtowed a handſome coat of tar upon him, and placed him upon the town-pump, cauſed him to ſwear that he would never more inform againſt any perſon in that or any other town, and then diſmiſſed him, after having received his thanks for the gentle diſcipline they had adminiſtred to him.

We are fallen into ſuch times, that a ſcrip from a S-------y of S---e ſhall have ſo much weight with a C-------r in C--f as to lead him to act counter to a clear charter right and a plain act of the province.

The Betſey packet, a prime ſailing ſchooner, owned and commanded by Captain Andrew Gardner, has been hired by this town, to carry to England, a full repreſentation of the tragical affair on the evening of the 5th of this month; and we hear will ſail the firſt fair wind.

APRIL 2. It will perhaps be ſurpriſing to the people of the neighbouring provinces to be told, that there is not above one ſeller of tea in the town of Boſton who has not ſigned an agreement not to diſpoſe of any more of that article, until the late revenue acts are repealed.

We hear three of the C------rs are skulking about the country; and that the good people of the province avoid them as much as they would beasts of prey.

The people of the province are at a loss to know what is become of the person reputed the King's attorney; he not having been visible at the superior court now sitting in Boston for a considerable time past.

His Majesty's ship the Senegal, Captain Sir Thomas Rich, arrived here last Thursday from Rhode-Island.

A gentleman in Carolina, in a letter to his friend in Boston, in answer to one inclosing the last budget of letters from Governor Bernard, &c. has the following passage.

"We have no processions, no noise, but I hope every thing is operating here, as well as in every other part of the continent, to bring about the events so generally wished for; I pray God to hasten them. Bernard and his Associates will want an H-ll as much hotter for them, than for common sinners, as Nebuchadnezzar's fiery furnace was, and two eternities continuance there."

April 9. Last Friday Ebenezer Richardson was brought into the Superior Court, in order for trial, having been indicted by the Grand Jury, for the cruel murder of the unfortunate young Snider, on the 2d of February, but the trial was postponed!

PROVIDENCE, (in Rhode-Island) March 31.

Monday last the gentlemen of the Committee for determining on a place to erect the College Edifice within this colony, met here, when after viewing several spots proposed, unanimously agreed upon the lot lately belonging to Daniel Abbot, Esq; deceased; and accordingly on Tuesday a number of workmen began to break the ground, in order to lay the foundation for that seminary of learning.

NEWPORT, (in Rhode-Island) March 26.

The Board of Commissioners, we are told, have left the town of Boston a second time and retired to Castle-William; and it is reported in Boston that the Board is dissolved.

April 2. By a gentleman, arrived in town yesterday from Boston, we are informed, that four under officers of the customs had been apprehended, and a bill found against them by the grand jury for being concerned in firing on the inhabitants from the custom-house, at the time of the late horrid massacre in Boston.

April 9. We hear that General Gage, last week, sent off an express, from New-York, for Boston, ordering the troops up to that town again.

HARTFORD, (in Connecticut) March 26.

Extract of a Letter from a Gentleman in Gibraltar, to his Friend in Norwich, dated December 17, 1769.

"I now undertake to give you an account of what passes here, (or at least what is reported) and first, you are to take notice, that the Russians and the Greeks are of the same religion ---That there are said to be more Greeks in Europe than Turks, and in all the islands in the Archipelago, four Greeks to one Turk, now the Empress of Russia has had her emissaries for more than 12 months past, in every part of Turkey, where the Greeks are. She has at this time, not less than 40 generals in the very heart of Turkey, trying to bring about a revolution; and in order to animate the Greeks to shake of the Turkish yoke, she has fitted out a large fleet, consisting of 40 ships of the line, besides frigates and store ships; the first division of this fleet passed by last week, except 5 sail, which stopped here a few days, and have since sailed. We hourly expect the second division, which is said to be 15 sail, 25 having passed us-----their first place of rendezvous is at Minorca; there the commander in chief is to meet them from Leghorn. This general has been to Constantinople ---has come down through every part of Turkey, where he chose to visit----he travels in the Greek dress, as do all the rest of the Russian generals now in Turkey. They all speak the Greek language, by which means they pass unsuspected; this general is he who brought about the revolution, and is the Empress's particular favourite, and is her first in command---we are told that as soon as the Russian fleet makes its appearance up the Arches, the Greeks will directly revolt from the Turks, and join the Russians; if so, the Russian fleet will sail directly from Constantinople down the Helespont, into the Black Sea. If once this is accomplished, the Turks will have no footing in Europe. This is the grand design of the Empress of Russia; for she does not scruple to say (as we are informed) that she would drive the Turks over the Helespont.---The last battle fought between the Russians and the Turks, the former came off victorious, though vast numbers were killed on both sides. The French are fitting out 15 sail of the line at Toulon, it is said, to join the Turks. Capt. ------, in one of our frigates, is cruising off Toulon, to watch the motions of the French. We are also informed there is another fleet fitting out at Brest.

"It is the opinion of our politicians here, that unless the Russians and Turks make a peace this winter, all Europe will be brought into a War before the next."

NEW-YORK, April 2.

The 14th of February last, his Excellency Sir William Trelawney, Governor of the Island of Jamaica, dissolved the General Assembly of that Island, and concludes his speech with saying, "I have staid long enough to perceive, that you mean not to "provide for his Majesty's troops, and the other exigencies of "government, but on terms inconsistent with his royal dignity "to accept; and on a submission, on my part, to a continuation "of indignities, it would ill become me any longer to endure."

[Noble Islanders!]

"I do in his Majesty's name, by and with the advice of his "Majesty's Council, dissolve this General Assembly, and it is "dissolved accordingly."

Saturday Night the 24th ultimo, about 11 o'Clock, 14 or 15 Soldiers were seen about the Liberty Pole in this City, which one of them had ascended, with an intent to take off and carry away the Topmast and Vane; as soon as they were discovered, 5 or 6 young Men, who were accidentally crossing the Green at that time, made up towards the Pole, to see what they were about, but they were immediately attacked and driven off the Green by the Soldiers; who finding they were discovered, and being apprehensive that the Inhabitants would be alarmed, they made off.---Soon after some Persons went into Town, and acquainted their Friends with the Proceedings of the Soldiers; upon which 14 or 15 Persons came up to the Green, and going to the Pole, were there surrounded by about 40 or 50 Soldiers with their Cutlasses drawn; upon which 4 or 5 of them retreated to the House of Mr. Bicker, and were followed by part of the Soldiers, who immediately called out for the Soldiers from the Barracks; upon which they were joined by a very considerable Body that came over the Barrack Fence.---Mr. Bicker seeing himself and Family in Danger, and exposed to the Insults of a licencious and a brutal Soldiery, stood with his Bayonet fixed, determined to defend himself to the last Extremity, and declared he would shoot the first Man who should attempt to enter; they several Times attempted to force the under Door, the upper Door being open, which Mr. Bicker kept shut, by fixing the Point of his Bayonet against it, while they kept cutting and hacking the Barrel of the Gun, in attempting to cut him down with their Cutlasses,---but he soon after got the upper Door shut and barred; upon which they strove to break open the Front Windows (which were also shut, one of which they forced open, broke the Pains of Glass and cut all the Frame to Pieces, in order to get into the House. ------Some People who were in the House seeing the imminent Danger to which Mr. Bicker and his Family were exposed, got out the back Way, and ran to alarm the Citizens: The Chapel Bell was immediately rung, upon the hearing of which, the Soldiers retreated precipitately.-----A Number of the Citizens were up all Night, and under Arms, which probably prevented any Mischief being done, as they repeatedly swore they would set fire to the House, and burn or destroy every Person in it.----Colonel Robertson, the Commanding Officer of the Regiment, repaired to the Barracks, as soon as he had Notice of the Disturbance; he immediately ordered the Centinel to be confined, and remained up all Night, to prevent any further Mischief being done; and as a Number of Inhabitants nightly guarded the Pole, till the Transports with the Soldiers were sailed, they were disappointed in effecting their Designs against it, although they positively swore they would carry off some Part of it with them.

The Governor of the Massachusetts-Bay, having prorouged the Assembly of that Province to meet at Cambridge, instead of Boston, both Houses had warmly represented to the Governor, that such a Proceeding was contrary to Law, and their Province Charter, and protested against it; but the Governor's Reply gave them no Satisfaction, and they continued to sit at Cambridge, when the last Post came from Boston.

April 16. We hear, that Part of Lord Dunmore's Baggage, with one of his Domestics, is arrived at Newport.

The following is said to be an exact List of the Names of the Grand Jurors, for April Term, 1770.

George Harrison, George Fullar, Leonard Lispenard, Gerard Walton, David Johnston, Henry Cuyler, Andrew Barclay, Henry Law, Jonathan Lawrence, Thomas Marston, Thomas W. Moore, Charles M'Evers, William Van Cortland, Samuel Deall, Christopher Smith, Rodolphus Van Dyck, Jacobus Van Zandt, John Roy, Dirck Brinckerhoff, Peter Remsen, Jacobus Lefferts, John Livingston, George Brewerton, junior, Sheffield Howard.

The foregoing is the Pannel of the Grand Jury, who are to serve in the Term of April, when the important Affair, relative to Captain M'Dougall (in which every Man on the Continent of America is eventually concerned) will come under Confideration. ---The Term begins To-morrow.

April 19. Letters by the Packet, we hear, mention, that the Revenue Act will certainly be repealed, as to all Articles imported into the British Colonies, except Tea.

We hear our Money Bill has been totally rejected.

PHILADELPHIA, April 2.

A few days ago died at Annapolis, in Maryland, greatly and deservedly regretted, Philemon Lloyd Chew, Esq; of Queen-Ann's county, in that province.

On the 30th ult. died, in an advanced age, at his seat in Bucks county, Lawrence Growden, Esq; a gentleman of a very respectable character.

Monday last arrived here, Captain Morton, from North-Carolina, by whom we learn, that about three weeks ago in a gale of wind, the Ship Ann & Dorothy, Captain William Greenway, from Barbados for this port, was drove a shore a little to the northward of Cape Hatteras, the people, rigging and cargo, if any, are saved, but the vessel lost; and that the Sloop ---------, Captain Hibbs, belonging to and bound for North-Carolina, from Jamaica, a Bermudian Sloop, and two other Sloops not known, were drove ashore to the southward of Cape Hatteras.

Extract of a Letter from New-York, March 30.

"It is reported that General Gage hath ordered the Troops back to Boston from Castle-William. If so, the Issue will be dreadful.-----May the much injured Inhabitants go on resolutely to maintain their just Rights and Privileges, and may their Children's Children to many succeeding Generations have Reason to rise up and call them blessed.-------May Heaven subdue their Enemies."

April 23. His Honour the Governor has been pleased to appoint William Hicks, Esq; to succeed the late Lawrence Growden, Esq; in the different Offices which he held in the County of Bucks.

By Captain Robbins, from North-Carolina, we learn, that a Snow, bound to Baltimore from Dublin, with a Number of Servants and Passengers on board, was drove ashore on Boyd's Island, near Oranoak, about six Weeks ago, where the Vessel is entirely lost, but the People saved, together with her Sails, Rigging, &c.

XXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXX

Mr. Crouch,

Your inserting the following Lines in your Gazette, will oblige A CONSTANT READER.

To R. P. H. H*y, Esq;

YOU ask, was I to change my Life,
What kind of Girl I'd take to Wife?
One that's fair, genteel and pretty,
And on Trifles can be witty;
Not volatile, yet ever gay,
And on the Harpsichord can play,
Accompanying it with a Song-----
Mellifluous flowing from her Tongue;
Not fond of Cards, yet sometimes will
Make up a Party at Quadrille;
With Prudence always for her Guide,
And OEconomy by her Side:
This, this is her I'd take to Wife,
For HER alone I'd change my Life.

I. WE present as a great Grievance the Custom of loaded Waggons with Narrow Wheels, travelling the High Roads, by which the said Roads are cut up and destroyed, to the great Detriment and Danger of all Travellers, and do recommend to the Legislature to pass a Law to enforce the use of Broad Wheels.
